

The Train

Cover, you better run for cover
Cover, the train wreck's back in town

Every time you see her
You jump right out of your skin
She only has to touch you
And it starts all over again

Suffer, she thinks man was born to suffer
Suffer, the train wrecks back in town

She's such a walking disaster
Children run and hide
But you reach out and embrace her
I'm surprised she's still alive

Cover, you better run for cover
Cover, the train wreck's back in town
Suffer, she thinks man was born to suffer
Suffer, the train wreck's back in town

Run for cover
Run for cover
Run for cover, run
Born to suffer
Born to suffer
Born to suffer, run
