MONTAZUMA'S REVENGE

There's a Mexican walking around with my name

I was drinking in the bar at the Rosarito Beach Hotel
What I thought was heaven quickly turned to hell
Waves on the left of me, margarita's on the right
It was a Robert Keen kind of Monday night
There's a Mexican walking around says he's me

I closed up the bar and headed off to my room
Three sheets to the wind and singing out of tune
When I awoke my wallet was gone, so much for fun in the sun
Just a gringo with Montazuma's Revenge
There's a Mexican walking around with my name

There's a Mexican walking around with my name
Says he's from Ohio and looks extremely good for his age
There's a Mexican walking around with my name

I heard my name last night on the evening news
I got busted in San Diego with a kilo or two
I was a cop from Tijuana with a home in Echo Park
And a tattoo of Jesus on my arm
There's a Mexican walking around with my name

There's a Mexican walking around with my name
Says he's from Ohio and looks extremely good for his age
There's a Mexican walking around with my name
There's a Mexican walking around with my name
Says he's from Ohio and looks extremely good for his age

There's a Mexican walking around with my name
A freaking Mexican walking around with my name

words & music by Alden Sawyer aldenspond- BMI